

KCNT1 Epilepsy Foundation - Donor Rights Policy

The KCNT1 Epilepsy Foundation is committed to respecting the rights of our donors and maintaining the highest level of integrity and transparency in all our fundraising efforts. We believe in the importance of protecting our donors' privacy and ensuring that their generosity is acknowledged, valued, and used effectively for the intended purposes. As such, we have established the following Donor Rights Policy to guide our interactions with our valued supporters:

1. Right to Information

Donors have the right to receive accurate and timely information about our mission, how their donation is used, and the capacity of our organization to use donations effectively for their intended purposes.

2. Right to Privacy

Donor privacy is paramount. We commit to not selling, sharing, or trading our donors' personal or contact information with any third party, nor sending mailings on behalf of other organizations, without the donor's explicit consent.

3. Right to Recognition

Donors have the right to be acknowledged and recognized for their contributions, in accordance with their wishes. This may include being listed in publications or on our website, unless the donor explicitly opts for anonymity.

4. Right to Transparency

Donors have the right to easily access our organization's most recent financial statements and to be informed about how their donations are being allocated.

5. Right to Confidentiality

All interactions with donors will be conducted confidentially, unless the donor grants permission otherwise. This includes requests for anonymity, which will be respected and honored.

6. Right to Accountability

Donors have the right to expect that our organization will be managed responsibly and prudently, with a high degree of accountability and compliance with all laws governing charitable organizations.

7. Right to Communication

Donors have the right to choose the type and frequency of communication they receive from us. They may opt-out of any future communications at any time.

8. Right to Question and Complain

Donors have the right to ask questions about our organization's operations and to receive prompt and truthful answers. Any complaints will be taken seriously, investigated, and responded to appropriately.

9. Right to Effectiveness

Donors have the right to expect that their gifts will be used effectively for their intended philanthropic purposes, with an understanding of our organization's capacity to achieve its mission.

10. Right to Withdraw or Modify Support

Donors have the right to withdraw their support or modify the form of their gift if they feel that our organization is not adhering to their expectations or the standards set forth in this policy.

The KCNT1 Epilepsy Foundation is deeply grateful for the trust and support of our donors. We pledge to uphold these rights and to act with the utmost integrity and respect in all our fundraising endeavors.
